Wandwasi is a small black boy in primary four at Ntori Primary School. He comes after two boys and three girls. He is known for his good behaviour at school. During elections for prefects, all teachers of P.4 supported him to become the head prefect because he is obedient and polite.

Wandwasi enjoys helping his father in the garden. He also enjoys going to the river to fish over the weekend. His mother Mrs. Kamara travels across the river every Saturday to sell clothes in Magale Market.

It's from these activities that Wandwasi's parents are able to raise his school fees. Wandwasi feels scared whenever his mother requests him to accompany her across the river.
