God's plan for salvation

How did god bridge the gap between man and himself?

- By calling Abraham
- By rescuing the Israelites from Egypt
- By making a covenant with the Israelites
- By guiding the Israelites to the promised land
- By preparing his chosen people through leaders and prophets
- Salvation means the power to overcome evil.

Steps in God's plan of salvation

Step 1

God calls Noah

- God called Noah to redeem the world by asking him to build the Ark
- He later sinned against god by becoming drunkard and slept naked with his daughters and his sons covered him out of shame
- Because of this act god stopped using him
- During Noah's time people were so sinful and decided to destroy everyone apart from Noah's family
- Despite the floods, people continued to sin
- God decided to start a new salvation plan by calling Abraham

Step II

God calls Abraham. (Gen 12)

- Abraham is the grandfather of all believers
- He was given the title Patriarch
- Patriarch is the head of an extended family
- He is the head of Israel as a family
- He is the ancestor of gods people
- Abraham means the father of all nations
- He was originally known as Abram but later his name was changed to Abraham
- Terrah was the father of Abraham, Nahor and Haran
- He was born from the town of Ocutha in Mesopotamia
- Sarai was Abraham's wife
- Isaac was Abraham's promised son
- He slept with his slave Hagar to produce Ishmael, Abrahams first son
- They lived in the town of Ur

Why did God call Abraham?

- To establish a monotheistic and true religion in Israel
- To start the salvation of man
- To begin a great nation of Israel
- To test his faith
- To solve his problem of barrenness
- He was willing to respond positively to gods call
- To establish a holy godly kingdom
- To purify the path of the messiah

God's promises to Abraham

- Making him a great nation
- A savior to come from his lineage
- Making his name great
- Blessing those who bless him

- Cursing those who curse him
- Blessing all people through him

Ways Abraham showed his faith to God

- He accepted to move from his homeland, Haran to a new land, Canaan.
- He accepted to change his name from Abram to Abraham.
- He accepted to change his wife's name from Sarai to Sarah.
- He accepted that he would have a son at an old age of a hundred years
- He accepted to sacrifice his beloved(promised) son Isaac
- He accepted to circumcise at the age of ninety nine and his son Ishmael at the age of thirteen

NB

- Abraham was to sacrifice his son from mount Moriah
- Abraham finally sacrificed a ram instead of his son
- Sarah produced Isaac
- Sarah died at 127 years at Kiriath in Canaan
- Abraham took another wife known as Keturah (a concubine) who bore him the following sons
- Zimran Midian
- Jokshan Medan
- Ishbak Shuah
- Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac but gave some gifts to the sons of his concubine(Keturah) and sent them away from his son Isaac to the land of the east

The story of Jacob (Genesis 25:19 – 26, 27, 28)

God's promises to Jacob

- God promised Jacob and his descendants the land of Canaan on which he was resting
- God promised Jacob to have very many descendants
- God promised to bless all the nations through Jacob and his descendants
- God promised to protect Jacob wherever he would go

Step II

Biblical teachings on fear and courage (Mark 14:32-36, Joshua 1:5-9, Isaiah 41:10-13/14)

- We should pray to God for strength and courage whenever we are in fear.
- We should have determination, confidence and obey God's commandments as a solution for fear.
- It teaches that we should never fear whether we are small or weak.
- It teaches that all our worries should be left with God because he cares for us.

Theme: Praying in the Spirit

How to communicate to God:

- Through praying

How God communicates

- Through the Bible
- Through vision
- Through prophets
- Through priests.

Prayers:

A prayer is a way of communicating to God

Types of prayers:

- Prayers of praise: - prayers said to glorify God (Exodus 15:1-8)
- Thanksgiving prayers- prayers said to thank God (Psalms 138)
- Confessional prayers: prayers said to request God for forgiveness (Psalms 51:19, 2Samuel 12:13)
- Petition prayers: prayers said to request our bodily and spiritual needs or present a problem to God
- Intercessional prayers – prayers said to request God to meet other people's needs.

Importance of prayers:

- They help us to come closer to God.
- They help us to control our emotions.
- They help us to talk to God.
- They help us to find relief in times of stress and sorrow.

Reasons why Christians pray:

- To thank God
- To praise God
- To confess our sins.
- To ask for protection.

Ways of praying (Matt. 6:5-7, 18/19, Mark 1:35, Acts 10:46)
