- Quotation marks are not used in reported speech.
- The comma is also dropped.

Some changes are made

- in tenses
- in pronouns
- in adverbs
- If the reporting verb is in the present tense, the tense does not change when reporting

Example

Joy says, "My pen is missing."

Joy says that her pen is missing.

- When the reporting verb is in the past tense, the tense of the words quoted has to change

Example

- When reporting scientific facts, the tense does not change

Example

'Water boils at 100°C, the teacher said.

The teacher said that water boils at 100°C.

- 'Must' changes

(a) 'must' in present tense changes to "had to"

Example

"I must write to my friend," Rebecca said

Rebecca said that she had to write to her friend.

(b) Must (future) changes to "would have to"

Example

"I must leave for London next year," said the teacher.

The teacher said that he would have to leave for London the following year.

(c) Must

It is used as rule remains MUST

Example

"Children must obey their parents," the Headmaster said.

(d) MUST

(To mean certainty) remains must

Example

"He must be 15 years now," said John.

John said that he must be 15 years then

Note:

Commands and requests

(i) The imperative form of the verb is changed to infinitive

Example

"Take this book to the office," he told me.

He told me to take the book to the office

(ii) When the reporting verb say takes an object, it is changed to a verb that introduces a command.

- We shall go home tomorrow," he said to me.
- He told me that they would go home the next day.
